

To

The Principal,

Rampurhat College

Greetings for the day.

As discussed, over the phone, We would like to introduce our self as the ed-tech division of Times of India group i.e. Timespro. In Timespro we train candidates and up skill them for employability in various leading BFSI sector. TimesPro's vision is to fulfill the aspirations of millions of learners, by making excellence accessible, through learner-centric innovations and global collaborations.

As a part of our Academic Outreach Program, we wish to conduct a webinar for your esteemed institution wherein we will have a session on the career after graduation in Banking Financial Services and Insurance Sector. Keeping in the growth aspect and the kind of career aspect the BFSI industry bring on the table, this has come up long way to create a long road map for the fresh graduates. What are the different avenues a student can choose after graduation especially the newer trends and the lesser competitive sectors, which are booming sectors in India.

The session will highlight

- Career opportunities after graduation in BFSI industry
- Different avenues after graduation
- Why Booming sectors in India
- Future in booming sectors (e.g. Banking, Wealth Management and Insurance)
- Way Forward

The session will be conducted by professionals with vast years of experience and knowledge. We are confident that this webinar is going to help the students going forward in their career. Since most of the final year students are in the verge of taking a career decision we would like to have final year graduation.

Hence we hereby look forward to your consent and support.
